16 February 2021

Supply@ME Capital plc
(The "Company" or "SYME")
Update on Restoration of Listing

Further to the announcement made by the Company on 4 February 2021, SYME issues the following statement regarding the restoration of its Listing on the Standard List of the London Stock Exchange.

The Company successfully addressed the technical DTR breach regarding the timing of the publication of its financial statements on 29 January.

SYME has since been in regular communication with the FCA in support of the regulatory steps and due process required for the lifting of the temporary suspension.

The Company is aware that this has taken longer than expected. However, the temporary suspension has not impacted SYME's inventory funding routes and the related commercial activities which are continuing simultaneously across the several operating geographies.

The Company notes that the timetable for the relisting and resumption of share dealings is outside of its control. It will keep shareholders updated regarding progress as it is made.
